The island nation of Trinidad and Tobago is one of the regions which makes up the West Indies cricket team. It has produced international cricketers in all forms of the game—Tests, One Day Internationals and Twenty20 Internationals. Five players from Trinidad and Tobago were included in the West Indies's first ever Test match, against England in 1928. Nelson Betancourt became the first Trinidadian to captain the West Indies when he led the side against England in 1930. Of the Classroom testing has less impact, but is considered indicative of performance on comprehensive tests. The Common Entrance Examination (CEE) at the end of Standard 5 and the CXC examinations at the end of Form 5 are extremely important for students. Since students are solely held responsible for their performance on examinations and since entrance to subsequent educational levels is solely based on these test scores, the stakes for students and their parents in
